INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

My name is Jessie C. Murphy. I am about 48 years. I came here from Texas. I was born and raised in Texas. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission but I do not have my numbers with me. I got the strip money in 1894. My brothers got the bread money. I have a brother Bob Wyche and John Wyche. They are younger. They were also enrolled by the Dawes Commission. I get my blood from my mother, Bonnie or Sabina Mayfield. Died 30 years ago. She lived in Texas. She was born here and went to Texas. My mother never associated with any other tribe of Indians. They were regarded as Emigrants. My grandmother, Sally Starr, Mayfield after marriage, came from the East; Georgia I or Tenn. think? I do not know about what time they came. I never heard anything about the treaties. I do not know whether my grandmother was enrolled in 1835. She had quite a number of brothers and sisters: George Starr, Ruth Bean, were two of them. My mother had brothers and sisters: Nancy Harnage, nee Mayfield; she lived in Texas and at one time in the Territory; she may have been born in the East as I think she was an Emigrant. Nancy was older than my mother and very likely emigrated with my grandmother. Then there was Elvira, Emily or Emma, ~~Wick~~, Wilson, and Walker. Wilson lived here at one time; I think before the war. There was also Vick, or Victoria, mother's sister. Neppie Adair, nee Mayfield, and she is older than Nancy. Two or three died, when small. I think George Starr lived in Flint or Going Snake District. I don't know whether he had a middle name. My mother was called Albina and Sabina. My mother's father was Jesse Mayfield. I do not know of their ever associating with any other tribe of Indians. I have always understood that they were Emigrants. They never received any Old Settler money. Judge Starr, a cousin to my mother may have drawn Old Settler money but my grandmother never did. (Look up Starrs on 1861 and 1835.) (Also the Mayfields.)

In the matter of the claim of William Mack Presley et al
for participation in fund appropriated by Congress June 30, 1906, for Eastern and Emigrant Cherokee Indians and their descendants.

On this 11th day of Aug A. D. 1906, personally appeared before me, Orville E. Gorman, a Notary Public in and for said County, duly authorized to administer oaths, James Harralson, aged 20 years, a resident of Webb City, Jasper County, Missouri, well known to be a reputable and entitled to credit, who being by me duly sworn on his oath, declared and saith in relation to said case as follows:

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown in his life time.
He came from McMinn or Monroe County, Tennessee, and located and settled near what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, on or about the year 1836 or 1837. He came to said Polk County two or three years before his death. The said Alexander Brown, when I first knew him, lived in Tennessee. I have heard that he came to Tennessee from Georgia.
He lived about a mile from where my father lived in Tennessee. I knew said Alexander Brown from the time I was old enough to remember any one until his death. He visited my father and my father visited him quite often. His family and my father's family visited back and forth quite often. His children and my father's children played together often and the two families were intimately acquainted with each other. I have a very clear and distinct recollection of hearing the said Alexander Brown say that he was registered or that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians prior to his leaving Tennessee, and I have heard him tell this both before he left Tennessee and after he came to Missouri.
I came to Missouri soon after Alexander Brown left Tennessee, and I saw him and was intimately acquainted with him both in Missouri and in Tennessee. The said Alexander Brown was a tall broad shouldered man, rather slim, high cheek bones, dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He said his children were generally known and recognized and reputed to be part Cherokee Indian. They had the appearance of being part Indian.
I have heard Alexander Brown and also his children say that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and they always claimed to be of Cherokee blood.

Said Alexander Brown's remains were buried at the Brock grave yard near Brighton in Polk County, Missouri. It was the general talk among the children and neighbors of Alexander Brown that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. I recollect that he was called by the Indian nick name of "Swanee." When he left Tennessee and came West he was accompanied by a number of families.

Said Alexander Brown was the father of the following named children: Thomas Brown, Ison Brown, John Brown, Zach. Brown, Sarah (Brown) Harbolton, who was also called "Sally", Diote (Brown) Fender, Elizabeth (Brown) Ruth, Susan (Brown) Proctor, Annis (Brown) Pace and Violet (Brown) Ruth. Said Diote (Brown) Fender was the mother of Michael A Fender who is the father of Malissa Marcell Fender who married William Presley and who is about 47 years of age and resides near Brighton Polk County Missouri. I personally knew all of above named parties and am not concerned or interested in this case or its prosecution

On this 7th day of August, A. D. 1906, personally appeared before me Orville E. Gorman, a Notary Public, in and for the aforesaid county, duly authorized to administer oaths, Russell Stokes, aged 36 years, a resident of Springfield, Greene County, Missouri, whose post office address is #2130 Taylor Street, in Springfield, Greene County, being duly sworn declared in relation to the aforesaid case as follows:

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown during his life time, from and after the time he came to Polk County, Missouri, which was about the year of 1835 or 1836, until his death, which occurred about the year 1837 or 1838. Said Alexander Brown located and settled near what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, and lived there continuously from the time he came to Missouri until his death.
His remains were buried near Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, at what is now called the Brook Grave Yard. During the time above mentioned, the said Alexander Brown and I lived in the same settlement as neighbors. We saw each other and were together quite often. We fished together and had many conversations together and became intimately acquainted.

The said Alexander Brown told me that he was a Cherokee Indian--my recollection is that he said he was a half blood Cherokee and that he came to Missouri from Tennessee. He was recognized and reputed by all who knew him to be a Cherokee Indian. He told me that he had his papers showing his Indian rights, and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. The said Alexander Brown has always claimed to be a half blood Cherokee Indian, and all his children claimed to be part Indian and were recognized and reputed to be such by all who knew them.

Alexander Brown aforesaid, was a very tall man, broad shouldered, rather slim with dark hair and eyes and of dark complexion.

I have no interest in said case and am not concerned in its prosecution.

Said Alexander Brown had the following named children:
Sally (Brown) Hamblen, Dicie (Brown) Fender, Leon Brown, Violet (Brown)

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown in his life time.
He was my Grandfather. He came from McMinn County, Tennessee, where he lived when I first knew him. He lived about four or five miles from my father's residence in Tennessee. I can remember his being at my father's house a number of times. His family and my Father's family were intimately acquainted and when he left Tennessee and came to Missouri, there were about six families came together, including my father's and Alexander Brown's family. Said families were all related to each other. We left Tennessee in the fall of 1835-came to a place in Illinois fifteen or eighteen miles east of St. Louis and stopped there over the winter, and in the spring came on to, what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, arriving there May 10, 1836. I was with them during the whole journey to Missouri from Tennessee. I have often heard my Mother, who is a daughter of said
Alexander Brown, and my Uncles and Aunts say that said Alexander Brown was a half blood Cherokee Indian. Also, I have heard them say many times that said Alexander Brown was enrolled as a Cherokee Indian on the Roll of 1835. He was a tall man, dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He has always been talked about and known as a half blood Cherokee. He died in 1838. I was at his funeral-the first person I ever saw buried. He was buried at Brook Grave Yard, near Brighton, Polk County, Missouri.

Said Alexander Brown had the following named children, viz:

Annis Brown, who married Robert Pace, Dicie Brown, who married

Susan B. Gibby being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 52 years of age and live in Cherokee Co., N.C. I claim my Indian descent through my father; my mother was a white woman. I claim through my father's mother. All my other grandparents were white. My father was born and raised in Cherokee Co., N. C. on Valley River. He was born long before the war; don't know whether he is living or dead. My grandmother was born and raised in Cherokee Co., N. C. She lived there until she died. She died along about the commencement of the war. I never lived with the Indians myself. My father lived with them as an Indian somewhere in this county. That's what he always told me. My grandmother also lived with the Indians in this county. My father nor grandmother were never on any rolls and I don't know why they were not enrolled. My grandmother Bryson was married twice. Her second husband was Burris. Her maiden name was Peggy or Margaret Wolf. My father nor grandmother never had any other names than those given. My father stopped living with the Indians when he was about 19 years old. My father would be about 80 years old if he was living. I don't think my grandmother Wolf or Bryson had any brothers or sisters. Charlie, Lafayette, Elizabeth and Rebecca Burris were my father's brothers and sisters. I am recognized as a white woman with some Indian blood. I claim to be 1/4 Cherokee. Never heard of my father or grandmother receiving any money from the government. When I was about 20 years old my father thought of making application and said he would do so if he thought there was anything in it. My father went to Tenn. and I have not heard from him for about three years. Don't know of anybody who knew my father in 1835. At that time he was living with the Indians and had a voice in the Indian deliberations. My father lived near Andrews, N. C. in Cherokee Co. on Mr. Moss's farm. He was a white man and my father rented this farm from him. He had been living with the Indians but I don't know whether he was living with them at the time he rented this land. Don't know whether he ever got any land from the government. I have also filed application #37989 and my daughter has filed application #31660. My husband is a white man and she just claims through me.

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, we beg to inform you that the names of your parents and grandparents, as given in your application, do not appear on the rolls of 1835 or 1851. Please inform us why you and your parents were never enrolled with the Eastern Cherokees. Have you or they ever been enrolled with any other tribe of Indians. If so, state with which, when and where. Were your parents slaves? If so, were they slaves of Indians or white people? In what County were your parents living in 1851?

Can you furnish us with evidence tending to establish the fact that you are a descendant of persons who were recognized members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe of Indians at the date of the Treaty of 1835-36 and 1846? If so, please state what the evidence is, and send us the names and correct addresses of any witnesses who will testify to that effect.

ss. In the matter of the claim of Charles W. Reavis et al for participation in fund appropriated by Congress June 30, 1906, for Eastern
and Emigrant Cherokee Indians and their descendants.

On this 31st day of July A. D. 1906 personally appeared before me, Orville E. Gorman, a Notary Public in and for the aforesaid County, duly authorized to administer oaths, James Harralson, aged 80 years, a resident of Webb City, Jasper County, Missouri, well known to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being by me duly sworn on his oath, declared and saith in relation to said case as follows:

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown in his life time. He came from McMinn or Monroe County, Tennessee, and located and settled near what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri on or about the year of 1836 or 1837. He came to said Polk County two or three years before his death. Alexander Brown when I first knew him lived in Tennessee. I have heard that he came to Tennessee from Georgia. He lived about a mile from where my father lived in Tennessee. I knew said Alexander Brown from the time I was old enough to remember any one until his death. He visited my father and my father visited him quite often. His family and my father's family visited back and forth quite often.
His children and My father's children played together often and the two families were intimately acquainted with each other. I have a very clear and distinct recollection of hearing the said Alexander Brown say that he was registered or had his name on the roll of Cherokee Indians prior to his leaving Tennessee, and I have heard him say that both before he left Tennessee and after he came to Missouri. I came to Missouri soon after Alexander Brown left Tennessee, and I saw him and was intimately acquainted with him both in Missouri and in Tennessee. Alexander Brown was a tall broad shouldered man, rather slim, high cheek bones, dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He said his children were generally known and recognized and reputed to be part Cherokee Indian. They had the appearance of being part Cherokee Indian. I have heard Alexander Brown and also his children say that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and they always claimed to be part Indian blood.

Said Alexander Brown's remains were buried at the Brock Grave Yard near Brighton in Polk County, Missouri. It was the general talk among the children and neighbors of Alexander Brown that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. I recollect that he was called by the Indian nick name of "Swanee" When he left Tennessee and came West he was accompanied by a number of Families.

I have no interest in said case nor am I concerned in its prosecution.

Said Alexander Brown was the father of the following named
children: Thomas Brown, Isom Brown, Mohn Brown, Zach Brown, Sarah (Brown)Hambelton, who was also called "Sally" Dicie(Brown)Fender, Elizabeth(Brown)Ruth, Susan(Brown)Proctor, Annis(Brown)Pace and Violet(Brown)Ruth. Said Dicie(Brown)Fender is the mother of Susan McFender who married John Reavis. Said Susan McReavis resided in Greene County Missouri and is now deceased. I personally knew above named parties

On this 31st day of July A. D. 1906, personally appeared before me, Orville P. Gorman, a Notary Public, in and for the aforesaid County, duly authorized to administer oaths, Russell Stokes, aged 86 years, a resident of Springfield, Greene County, Missouri, whose post office address is #2130 Taylor Street in Springfield, Greene County, Missouri, well known to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn declared in relation to aforesaid case as follows:

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown during his life time, from and after the time he came to Polk County, Missouri, which was about the year of 1835 or 1836, until his death, which occurred about the year of 1837 or 1838. Said Alexander Brown located and settled near what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, and lived there continuously from the time he came to Missouri until his death. His remains were buried near Brighton, Polk County, Missouri at what is now called the Brock Grave Yard. During the time above mentioned, the said Alexander Brown and I lived in the same settlement as neighbors. We saw each other and were together quite often. We fished together and had many conversations together and became intimately acquainted.

The said Alexander Brown told me that he was a Cherokee Indian-- my recollection is that he said he was half blood Cherokee and that he came to Missouri from Tennessee. He was recognized and reputed by all who knew him to be a Cherokee Indian. He told me that he had his papers showing his Indian Rights, and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. The said Alexander Brown has always claimed to be a half blood Cherokee Indian, and all his children claimed to be part Indian and were recognized and reputed to be such by all who knew them.

Alexander Brown aforesaid was a very tall man, broad shouldered, rather slim with dark hair and eyes and of dark complexion.

I have no interest in said case and am not concerned in its prosecution.

Said Alexander Brown had the following named children:
Sally (Brown) Hamblen, Bicie (Brown) Fender, Isom Brown, Violet (Brown)
Ruth, John Brown, Elizabeth (Brown) Ruth, Thomas Brown, Susan Brown
Proctor, Zach. Brown, and Annis (Brown) Pace.

Said Bicie (Brown) Fender is the mother of Susan M. Fender who married John Pearis. Said Susan M. Pearis is the mother of several children and is now deceased. In her life time she resided at Greene County, Missouri. I personally knew all of above named parties.

During the time above mentioned, the said Alexander Brown and I lived in the same settlement as neighbors. We saw each other and were together quite often. We fished together and had many conversations together and became intimately acquainted.

The said Alexander Brown told me that he was a Cherokee Indian-- my recollection is that he said he was half blood Cherokee and that he came to Missouri from Tennessee. He was recognized and reputed by all who knew him to be a Cherokee Indian. He told me that he had his papers showing his Indian rights, and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. The said Alexander Brown has always claimed to be a half blood Cherokee Indian, and all his children claimed to be part Indian and were recognized and reputed to be such by all who knew them.

Alexander Brown aforesaid was a very tall man, broad shouldered, rather slim with dark hair and eyes and of dark complexion.

I have no interest in said case and am not concerned in its prosecution.

Said Alexander Brown had the following named children: Sally (Brown) Hamblen, Dicie (Brown) Fender, Isaac Brown, Violet (Brown) Ruth, John Brown, Elizabeth (Brown) Ruth, Thomas Brown, Susan Brown, Proctor, Zach. Brown, and Annis (Brown) Pace.

Said Dicie (Brown) Fender is the mother of Susan M. Fender who married John Reavis. Said Susan M. Reavis was the mother of several children and is now deceased. in her life time she resided at Greene County Missouri. I personally knew all of above named parties.

In the matter of the claims of

and their descendants.

On the 24th day of July A.D. 1936 personally appeared before me Orville E. Corman a Notary Public in and for said County duly authorized to administer oaths James Harrison aged 80 years a resident of Webb City Jasper County Missouri now sojourning in Springfield Greene County Missouri whose post office address is Webb City Missouri well known to be respectable and entitled to credit who being duly sworn on his oath declared and saith as follows, in relation to said case I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown in his life time. He came from Monroe ^{or McMinn} County Tennessee and located and settled near what is now known as Brighton Pike County Missouri on or about the year of 1830 or 1837. He came to said Pike County two or three years before his death. He said Alexander Brown when I first knew him lived in Monroe ^{or McMinn} County Tennessee. I have heard that he came to Tennessee from Georgia, while in Tennessee he lived about a mile from my father's residence. I knew said

Alexander Brown as soon as I was old enough to know anyone, as he visited my father and my father visited him, his family and my fathers family visited back and forth very often, his children and my fathers children played together a great deal the two families were intimately acquainted with each other. I have a very clear and distinct recollection of hearing the said Alexander Brown say that he was registered in that his name was placed on the roll of Cherokee Indians before he left Tennessee and I have heard him tell this before he left Tennessee and after he came to Missouri. I came to Missouri soon after Alexander Brown left Tennessee and I saw said Alexander Brown and was intimately acquainted with him both in Missouri and in Tennessee. The said Alexander Brown was a tall broad shouldered man inclined to be slender; high cheek bones of dark complexion black hair and eyes. He and his children were generally known and recognized and reputed to be part Cherokee Indian. They looked like they had Indian blood. I have heard said Alexander Brown and also his children say that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and they always claimed to be of Cherokee Blood. Said Alexander Browns remains were buried at the Buck House Spring near Brighton Holt County Missouri. It was the general talk among the neighbors and children of said Alexander Brown that he was a half blood Cherokee and that he was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. I recollect that he was called by the Indian nick name of "Sinner". When he left Tennessee and came west was accompanied by several other families.

David Alexander Brown was the father of the following named children viz: Thomas Brown, John Brown, Isom Brown, Jack Brown, Sarah (Brown) Hamblton who was frequently called Sally, Fie (Brown) tender Elizabeth (Brown) Ruth, Susan (Brown) Practor, Annie (Brown) Pace, Violet (Brown) Ruth.

The said Sarah (Brown) Hamblton was the mother of Martha J. Haralson whose maiden name was Martha J. Hamblton who was the mother of Amanda J. Richards whose maiden name was Amanda J. Napa, Cal.

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, we beg to inform you that the names of your mother and grandparents on your mother's side, as given in your application, do not appear on the rolls of 1835 or 1851.

You state in your application that your parents received the sum of $338.08 in the year 1898. Was it Emigrant, Cherokee or Old Settlers money. Why have you never been enrolled with the Eastern Cherokees? Were any of your grandparents slaves. State about when your grandparents on your mother's side moved to Arkansas. Did they move West prior to 1835?

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

My name is Sabra R. Hayes. I live at Pryor Creek, Okla. I am enrolled by the Dawes Commission. 6574 is my no. I always understood that my father was an Immigrant Cherokee. I understood that he drew money in 1852. I have heard that he lived in Delaware District in 1852. My father's name is John R. Buffington. He was not married in 1852. I suppose that he was living with his father and mother at that time. His father's name was Joshua Buffington, and his mother's name Sabra. He had a brother William. John Buffington was living with his mother, Sabra Bell, in 1851. Sabra Bell, Joshua Buffington's wife married a Bell after Joshua Buffington died. Joshua Buffington died about 6 years before 1851, I am told. Mary Buffington was my aunt. My father had a brother by the name of Daniel Webster. and a sister M. L. or Liza Buffington. I have always been told that my father drew his money himself. He lived in the Canadian District a good deal.

Dear Cooley:-

Your letter of a few days since to Ma has been handed to me for reply as she is not well and has not been for some time. Ma says that your father was in Georgia in the year you speak of, 1852, and this will account for his name not being on the roll of that year. The rest of the family were here in the country at that time and are all enrolled. Ma has been confined to her bed for some time since and am afraid it will be some time before she is able to be up and about, if ever. The balance of the family are well and getting along all O.K.

Hon. Guion Miller, Special Commissioner.
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter to William Weavel, (not William Weaver) has just been received, and as he is a full blood Cherokee and does not speak any English, desires me to make such explanations as we can in reference to his ancestors. His father was Chi-wa-ni or Weavel, and was born ~~about~~ about the year 1838, in the Old Nation East and he says was on the Eastern Cherokee Roll of 1861. His grand-father was Co-ne-yah-hi-duh, if he had any english name he does not know of it. His grand-parents were members of the Eastern Cherokees.

If his name was given in his application as William Weaver it is wrong. His name is "William Weavel" and very likely this is the reason why they were not found on the Roll.

It is a very difficult matter to get an interpreter who can spell the Cherokee names correctly, we have done the very best we could in order to have them spelled as nearly correct as possible, and yet we find that no two spell the same name just alike. The Weavels are an old family here and were undoubtedly on the Eastern Cherokee Roll of 1861, but the older stock are all dead and the younger members know but little of their grand-parents. Hoping that this explanation will prove satisfactory.

I am Yours truly.

Mr. J. Subbary
Attorney for Applicants

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY
NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSKOGEE.

Supp. 3, 8,

DAVID HERBERT ET AL)

VS # 295.

: REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

CHEROKEE NATION)

I, W. A. Gibson, Special

Master herein, respectfully show to the Court that in accordance with the order of reference herein made by the Court I have examined the pleadings and proof herein, and have taken the proof offered by the appellants, all of which are herewith filed and made a part of this Report, and that I find as follows:-

I

That this cause was instituted on the 8th., day of September 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation of Indians. That the cause was tried by the said Commission and the application denied on the 19th., day of October 1896, no reason being given for the decision, and that the claimants appealed therefrom on the 19th., day of Dec, 1896 to the United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas. That in said Court on the 28th., day of December 1896, the said cause was heard by the Court and the said appeal dismissed for want of jurisdiction, and that thereafter on the 28th., day of January 1897, the said ~~xxxx~~ claimants appealed to this Court. That the said appeal was taken to the United States Court at Ft Smith Ark, under the impression that that was the Court in contemplation of the Statute, in view of the fact that the said Commission was sitting in Ft Smith at that time and when the said decision was rendered.

II

That this application was made by David Meredith, for himself and for his children Clarence D., & S. Meade Meredith, and his grand child Henry C. Meredith, ~~xxxxxx~~ by his sister Ann Eliza Starbuck, a sister of David Meredith, and her children Syrena Randolph, and Charles Starbuck, and her grand children Lula C. Randolph, and Floyd and Bertha A. Starbuck; and her grand daughter Ida Ridley and her children Mabel and Jessie Ridley.

By Mary E. Haynes, a niece of David Meredith, for herself and for her children Ray M., and Donna B. Haynes, and her brothers D. Rescoe, and Oris W. Meredith, and his child Letta L, and her niece Winona Cochran.

By Alonzo Meredith a cousin of David Meredith.

By David Pitts, a cousin of David Meredith, for himself and for his children Clarkson Pitts and John Pitts.

That all of said claimants reside at Aston in the Cherokee Nation where they have resided since 1876 and 1880, and where they have valuable improvements.

III

That the claimants file in support of their application the affidavits of Milton Starbuck, Clarkson Thomas, Andrew Meredith, David Meredith, H. H. Hubbard, S. S. Haynes, John Meredith, Jemima Whitworth, Charles Stevens, Mary Meredith, and Lydia Meredith Jefferson Meredith, and Jesse Meredith; and the testimony of David Meredith taken before me at Aston in this case.

That they also file letters from Senator Charles F. Wanderson (3) Senator O. H. Platt and Hon. W. L. Dawes, and an affidavit from Senator O. H. Platt, showing that the claimants herein had filed with the Indian Committee in the U. S. Senate, certain affidavits showing the Cherokee blood of the claimants and the fact that they were denied their rights as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the affidavits have been lost in some way. That the said affidavits and other testimony show that the claimants are all the lineal descendants of one David Meredith, who was the son of Mary Meredith, whose maiden name was Mary Crews. That the said David Meredith was born in Bedford County, Virginia in the year 1770 and died in Wayne County, Indiana in the year 1864.

That said Mary Crews was a Cherokee Indian by blood and was born on the Cherokee Indian Reservation East of the Mississippi River in the year 1752 and who died in Stokes County in North Carolina in the year 1823, that the said Mary Crews ~~is~~ was a sister of Ann Crews to whom the claimants in the Hubbard case trace their right, both of whom were daughters of Phoebe Dutch.

IV

That the claimants made application to a Cherokee Citizenship Commission under the Amendment of May 1897, and state that they were not informed as to what ~~any~~ action was had upon the application until they saw the papers from the Commission herein after in this appeal.

V

That the Cherokee Nation files in support of its answer the certified extract of the Records of the said Commission on citizenship in the Cherokee Nation showing that the claimants made application for citizenship and that their application was denied in the year 1899, for the reason that they could not show connection with the Cherokee Rolls of 1835-48-51-52, and that they did not prove their Cherokee blood.

The claimants contend that they having shown that they are all lineal descendants of Mary Crews who lived in the State of North Carolina and who was a Cherokee Indian by blood, they now being residents of the Cherokee Nation, wherein they have resided for from 8 to 10 years before making this application they are entitled under the law to be admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation; while the Cherokee Nation contends that the claimants having failed to show that Mary Crews, is now or has been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal of said Nation West to the Indian Territory, as at present located and defined, or that her name appears on any authenticated Roll of the Cherokee Nation, or that they or any of their ancestors now reside or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory as citizens thereof, and for the further reason that the claimants have heretofore made application to a Citizenship commission in the Cherokee Nation and their said applications have been denied, they are not entitled to be admitted to citizenship in said Nation by this Court.

The premises considered, I find that the claimants are all Cherokee Indians by blood, and are residents of the Cherokee Nation, where they have resided for from 8 to 10 years before making this application, and wherein they have valuable improvements.

That they made application to a Cherokee Citizenship Commission in the year 1887 and that their applications were denied in the year 1889, though the claimants do not appear to have known of the decision until the year 1896, after this appeal was taken, and though they had made application to the Commission to be allowed to withdraw their said application.

That they are descendants of Mary Crews who was born in the Old Cherokee Nation East and died in North Carolina in the year 1886, and who was a Cherokee Indian by blood.

Respectfully submitted this 14th., day of December 1897.

Milton Starbuck, of Afton, Indian Territory, to me well known for 18 years and who I certify to be credible and respectable, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, states that, he was born in Wayne County and State of Indiana, on the 28th. day of August in the year of 1825, and that he is to-day Eighty two years of age and able to do a days work in laying stone or brick in a wall and reads without glasses, that he now resides in Afton, I.T. where he and his family have resided off and on for 18 years or longer and that his post office address is the same. That he has been shown the application of one Linus Meredith, of Richmond Wayne County, Indiana, that the said Linus is the reputed son of one John Meredith, who was the son of Andrew Meredith, with whom he was well and personally acquainted, that he lived as a neighbor to said Andrew Meredith and knew him and his family well, that he knew him the said Andrew Meredith to be the reputed son of one John Meredith, who was the son of Mary Meredith, nee Mary Green, that the said John Meredith was a brother to David Meredith, who also was the son of Mary Meredith, that David Meredith was the grandfather of affiant's wife Ann Eliza Starbuck, nee Meredith, and who was the daughter of John Meredith a son of David Meredith.

Affiant further states that he having been a member of the family for nearly sixty years having married his wife Ann, Eliza Starbuck, nee Meredith in the year 1848, that he has a right to know these facts, and that he has known the Hubbard and Meredith families for over seventy years and knew them to be North Carolina Cherokee Indians and have heard all of the older heads of the Hubbards and Merediths tell of their being members of the Eastern Tribe of the Cherokee Indians and that he has never heard their tribal rights disputed only as to the Cherokees in Indian Territory, west of the Mississippi river.

Affiant further states, that it is difficult at this day to trace the lineal descent of the Meredith and Hubbard family, without records or a thorough personal knowledge of the families, that sons and daughters were named after aunts, uncles and parents and grandparents until it is confusing at this day to a stranger not well versed in the genealogy of both the said families.

That affiant was raised in Wayne County Indiana and lived up to the time she left that country all her life among the Meredith and Hubbard families and has heard all of her life, being informed by the older members of both the Hubbard and Meredith families of the Cherokee blood in the said families and that they were members of the Cherokee Tribe of North Carolina Cherokee Indians.

Affiant states that Linus P. Meredith, is a member of the Meredith family and a descendant of a member of the Cherokee Tribe of Eastern Cherokee Indians. Further affiant saith not.

HUBBARD AN INTRUDER BY HIS OWN ADMISSION

Congressional Nominee Declared an Intruder by Several Courts Still Wants to Participate in Eastern Cherokee Payment

NOT ONLY DOES FRANK C. HUBBARD, THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS FROM THE THIRD DISTRICT, ADMIT THAT HE WAS AT ONE TIME DECLARED A CHEROKEE INTRUDER, BUT THREE CLOSELY TYPEWRITTEN PAGES OF HUBBARD'S, INCLUDING FRANK C. HUBBARD, HIS BROTHERS AND SISTERS, ARE AT PRESENT CLAIMANTS BEFORE THE DAWES COMMISSION FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE MONEY DUE THE EASTERN CHEROKEES, UPON THE GROUNDS OF THEIR DESCENT FROM PHOEBE CREWS, WHO DIED IN NORTH CAROLINA ON MARCH 9, 1800, AND WHO MARRIED JOSEPH W. HUBBARD, A WHITE MAN, AND ANCESTOR OF FRANK C. HUBBARD.

In 1896 the department of the interior permitted applicants for citizenship in the Cherokee nation who had been rejected by the Dawes commission to appeal to the court of the Northern district of Indian Territory, at that time presided over by Hon. William M. Springer.

Under this ruling there came up for a decision the celebrated Hubbard case in which the descendants of Caleb Hubbard tried to get on the rolls after being rejected three times, the Adair citizenship commission of and the Cherokee council both having decided against them before their case reached the Dawes commission. In 1889 the family, all having acquired valuable property in and around Afton, petitioned the Cherokee citizenship commission to be put on the rolls, but were denied because they were not in any manner connected with any name on the rolls. The Hubbards in that same year induced Senator Samuel H. Mayes to make a motion before the Cherokee council, allowing them allotment, but upon the motion of Senator Will P. Ross, the matter was postponed indefinitely. Mr. Ross stated that the citizenship commission could not go back of the rolls and that the Hubbards had failed to establish any connection with anyone on the roll.

When the case came up before Judge Springer it was listed as 257 and referred to Special Master in Chancery N. A. Gibson, who decided adversely to the Hubbards. Section eight of the application for enrollment recites that Woodson B. Hubbard is a party to the action for himself, his children, J. W. Hubbard, Frank C. Hubbard, Ernest H. Hubbard, Ethel I. Hubbard and Edith M. Hubbard, and for his grandchildren, Emma and Homer and Ruth, a daughter of Ernest Hubbard, of Muskogee. At the time this suit was filed the three minor children of Woodson B. Hubbard lived at Afton and the remainder of the family in Muskogee.

November 23, 1907.

John R. Hadley,

Marion,

Indiana.

Sir:-

Relative to the applications filed by you on behalf of the Smith family, claiming through the Hubbards and Ann Crews, daughter of Phoebe Goochee, or Dutch, you are advised that an examination of the records fails to disclose the names of any of these claimants, or of their immediate ancestors, upon the Eastern Cherokee rolls of 1835 and 1851.

It further appears from the applications filed by other members of the Hubbard family that these claimants and their immediate ancestors have not lived within the Eastern Cherokee domain at any time since 1835. In fact, it would appear from their applications that neither they or their ancestors lived within the domain of the Eastern Cherokees in the East.

It is true that some of the applicants claim back to ancestors who are alleged to have been born in Guilford County, North Carolina, but from the best information at hand and from careful examination of the treaties it appears that Guilford County, North Carolina, was never within the recognized

#2--John R. Hadley:

domain of the Cherokee Nation, and the limitations of the Cherokee country East in 1835 were two hundred miles, at least, to the west of Guilford County, North Carolina.

This would seem to preclude any idea of an association of these claimants with the Eastern Cherokee Tribe in 1835.

Furthermore, it appears that their only claim to Cherokee blood is through one Phoebe Goochee, or Dutch, who is alleged to have been a Cherokee woman, but from the statements in the applications it is evident that Phoebe Goochee must have been born as early as 1725, and there is no intimation, or allegation, or particle of evidence to show that after the marriage of Phoebe Goochee to her white husband, Hardy Crews, there was ever any further connection or association of this family with the Cherokee Indians until the comparatively recent efforts on the part of some of the alleged descendants of Phoebe Goochee to secure recognition in the Indian Territory as Cherokee Indians.

Under these circumstances these applications have been marked for rejection, and will be rejected unless you are able to offer some proof of the most conclusive character that these claimants, or their immediate ancestors, were in fact recognized by the Eastern Cherokee Tribe as a constituent part of the tribe at the date of the Treaty of 1835 or 1846.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Mr. Guion Miller,

Dear Sir:- Your letter of the 22nd, Inst., in regard to the Hubbard & Meredith applications for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, received.

Your letter is some what of a surprise to me, as I have been waiting to hear from you in regard to filing evidence in support of these applications.

I had in mind that you would come on the ground to hear and take testimony necessary to be taken in the premises.

I wrote some time since and asked you regarding the filing of additional evidence and received a reply stating that I would be allowed to file evidence in addition to applications but, you did not say when, or whether you would come down to the Territory to take evidence in the cases. I understood from other attorneys that you would be about on the grounds at some point in the Cherokee Nation.

I have testimony at Muskogee that I wish to take, also in North Carolina in support of the fact that the Hubbards were recognized by the Cherokee Band East, as being a part.

Also, I think you will find part of the Dutch family on the rolls also Hubbards, yet I am not able to prove to the rolls.

In regard to witnesses not yet heard, shall I submit their testimony in the form of affidavits? If so, how much time have I to get this evidence in? An early reply will be appreciated.

Very truly,

Dear Sir:- Your letter of 10th, received. I note what you have to say in regard to securing "additional records in the Hubbard and Meredith cases". Also in regard to sending you the names & addresses of witnesses in North Carolina.

Captain Jack Ellis, was to locate parties for me but, up to this writing I have not heard from him. He last heard of the parties at Yellow Hill.

I herewith enclose to you and file in the case an affidavit by J. W. Ellis, there are others at Tahlequah, or near there, some of the Hubbards, who are on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation west. I am informed by the older heads that these Hubbards instead of going from North Carolina into the western States came on here and joined the "Western Band" and have been with them since that time.

I also enclose an affidavit from Mrs. Jennie Whitworth, showing the relationship of Sarah A. Vance, Emma Hubbard, Mary Whitcomb and Robert H. Hubbard.

The testimony filed in the Original Hubbard case, a certified copy of which was filed with the Supreme Court of the U.S. contains an affidavit and I think, taken after proper notice was given to the Cherokee Nation, in 1893, came to be in the form of a deposition, by William Coffin, who was Superintendent of Ind. affairs under Gen'l Grant, while President. If you can get these records, you will find that Mr. Coffin, states that he heard John Ross, while Chief, say that the Hubbard's were North Carolina
Cherokee Indians and members of the "Eastern Band".

While down in North Carolina, I wish you would look up the old "code" of the State laws, if you can not find a copy, you might find a copy of the Tennessee laws prior to 1865, if you will look up the laws governing Indians, Mulatto's, Negro's and mixed bloods, you will at once understand why there are so many Cherokee's that were not enrolled. They were not allowed an oath even against one another until 1839 in Tennessee and not against a white person until after the Civil Rights Bill passed.

Under these laws, a boy who had any ambition to be other than a savage or slave slipped out in to the States and tried to lose his identity unless he emigrated north of Mason & Dixon's line. My father came into Tennessee at 17 and in a couple of years accepted the Chair of Languages in Holston College. Had he told them that he was a Cherokee Indian by blood he would have received, no doubt, a coat of tar and feathers, at that time, but, why should that lose him any of his rights or the rights of his children? Under any of the laws of the States, would the absence of an heir, even in a foreign country, regardless of time, prior to the winding up of such estate and whose name was not on the family roll, be deprived of participation, after identification?

You may look and see this matter in a different light from many of the lawyers here. Who say, that no matter where the person may be or when he left the old reservation east of the Mississippi River, that, unless he received his share of the fund and did not identify himself with another tribe, other than the Cherokee's & proves his Cherokee Indian blood he is entitled to participate, as a Cherokee by blood and not a member of another tribe he could be no other than a member of the Eastern Band at any time just as I am a member of my father's family.

I will write to Captain Ellis and endeavor to get the names and addresses of the witnesses in North Carolina and try to get them to you, while in that State.

I will also, endeavor to get the evidence of the parties near Tahlequah, and file with you.

Sir:

Your letter of March 6, 1908, is at hand. I do not think it will be at all necessary for you to secure additional records in the Hubbard and Meredith cases referred to in your letter, as the record you have already sent is sufficient for my purpose, as I assume the facts stated in them are substantially the same as those in the other cases.

I will be glad to extend the time for the filing of the evidence that you refer to but my investigation so far has not led me to the conclusion that these claimants were recognized members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe in 1835-6 or 1846.

I start to North Carolina early next week and will take some testimony there relative to these cases. If you have the names of any witnesses in that locality, which you deem it important for me to examine, please forward the names immediately.

Address your letter to me in care of the Winzendorf House, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. I would also suggest that you send a list of such witnesses to this office.

Dear Sir:- I have been endeavoring to secure copies of the Hubbard, Hubbard, Wright & Watt's cases as they were appealed from U.S. Dist., of Indian Territory to the Supreme Court of United States. I have failed so far to find a single copy in either case. I am under the impression that the Hubbard & Meredith cases were never put in print. I herewith send you the Special Masters report and affidavits of Milton Starbuck & Eliza Starbuck and certified copies of affidavits of Lydia & Mary Meredith, in the Meredith case.

I introduce these to prove the connection and relationship of Lillis P. Meredith, (Application number 42864).

In regard to a transcript in the above cases, could you not call on the Clerk of the Supreme Court, and read over the evidence there of files in the Hubbard & Meredith cases? and get a copy of the Watts and Braught case from him? (provided any copies left).

It will be a heavy expense to take a new transcript of those cases from the Dever Commission records.

I can send you a certified copy of the Masters report in the Hubbard case when I file the additional evidence that I am taking.

I am writing to locate parties in North Carolina in that case now.

I will ask you to give me time to get all the Hubbard evidence in which I hope to be able to do in the next 30 days.

If you can not get the transcripts from the clerk of the Supreme Court please let me know and I will try to get a transcript from the Commissioner at Muskogee, but would like to avoid that expense if possible.

November 30, 1907.

John J. Hubbard,

Afton,

Oklahoma.

Sir:-

Your letter of November 27, 1907, relative to the so-called Hubbard and Meredith claims, is at hand.

In reply you are advised that where a sufficient showing is made to justify an investigation in the field it is my purpose to visit Oklahoma and other sections of the country with a view of taking testimony in regard to the claims involved.

I do not, however, intend to take testimony when from the face of the application it appears that the parties are not entitled, nor do I intend to take testimony in cases, where the statements are so vague that there appears to be no likelihood of the claimants being able to establish their claim, until such showing is made as will justify such investigation in the field.

These Hubbard and Meredith families have been under full consideration heretofore, as you are well aware, and we have a large number of applications on file which recite facts that are entirely inconsistent with the idea that they or their immediate ancestors were recognized members of the Tribe of Eastern Cherokees at the dates of the Treaties of 1835-6 and 1846.

In order to justify the taking of testimony in the field in these cases it will be necessary that more definite and complete affidavits be filed in this office by witnesses who are shown on the face of the affidavits to be in a position to know whereof they speak, and these affidavits must contain facts not inconsistent with the applications already on file.

I am frank to say that I think it extremely improbable that any such showing can be made.

You ask how much time will be allowed you in which to file this evidence. In reply you are advised that it is desirable that you should file the proof as soon as possible, but that no final action will be taken prior to February 1, 1908. If you require further time please notify me, but please bear in mind that it will be utterly useless to file affidavits of a vague and indefinite character.

I am also in receipt of your second letter of November 27, 1907, in the matter of the Claim of Cynthia A. Brought, No. 2283. I will give the proof submitted due consideration.

If you have an extra copy of the record of these Hubbard cases as filed in the Supreme Court of the United

Also, if the Brought and Watts case went to the Supreme Court I should like to have a copy of the record in that case.

and a recognized member of the Cherokee Nation West, also a member of the Eastern Emigrant Cherokee/s. That he married Cordelia C.
Smith a daughter of N.J. Smith, late Chief of the Eastern Cherokees, that during the summer of 1892, he was on a visit to his father-in-law's Chief Smith, at his home in Yellow Hill, North Carolina, and during a conversation at that time, with the Chief the subject of the Hubbard family, was brought up, as they were trying to establish their rights in the Cherokee Nation West at that time. The Chief asked me if I knew them, or any of Col.
H. H. Hubbards family, I told him that I did. He said they should get their Citizenship out there, that they were North Carolina Cherokee Indians by blood and members of the Eastern Band of Cherokees, that they ought to be on the rolls. He then related to me that many years before then that the Hubbards had applied to his Council to be placed on the rolls and on account of the prejudice worked up by his son-in-law James Bly against them with members of the Council who were ignorant of the true facts in the case they were not enrolled. He then stated that, some of the Hubbard girls and two of his daughters attended School together in Asheville, and had some trouble and one of his girls marrying Bly afterwards, told him of the trouble and Bly used it against them to keep them from being enrolled. The Chief stated, had he known these facts at the time that there would have been no trouble and the Hubbards would have been now on the rolls of the Eastern Band of Cherokees, that they were members of the Band and Ought BY rights be enrolled as ~~such~~ such. He told me of old fullbloods that knew the Hubbards and had known them for years, "Big Ax" being one and others that I now do not remember their names.

MY wife, who is now deceased, has often talked to me about the Hubbards and she and other Eastern Cherokees recognized the Hubbards as being members of the Eastern Band by blood and that it was solely the prejudice worked up by James BLY, who married her sister Josie that kept the Hubbards from being enrolled.

Sir:-

Relative to the applications filed by you on behalf of the Hubbard and Meredith families for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, you are advised that an examination of the records fails to disclose the names of any of these claimants, or of their immediate ancestors, upon the Eastern Cherokee rolls of 1835 and 1851.

It further appears from the applications that these claimants and their immediate ancestors have not lived within the Eastern Cherokee domain at any time since 1835. In fact, it would appear from their applications that neither they or their ancestors lived within the domain of the Eastern Cherokees in the East.

It is true that some of the applicants claim back to ancestors who are alleged to have been born in Guilford County, North Carolina, but from the best information at hand and from careful examination of the treaties it appears that Guilford County, North Carolina, was never within the

recognized domain of the Cherokee Nation, and the limitations of the Cherokee country East in 1835 were two hundred miles, at least, to the west of Guilford County, North Carolina.

This would seem to preclude any idea of an association of these claimants with the Eastern Cherokee Tribe in 1835.

Furthermore, it appears that their only claim to Cherokee blood is through one Phoebe Goochee, or Dutch, who is alleged to have been a Cherokee woman, but from the statements in the applications it is evident that Phoebe Goochee must have been born as early as 1725, and there is no intimation, or allegation, or particle of evidence to show that after the marriage of Phoebe Goochee to her white husband, Hardy Crews, there was ever any further connection or association of this family with the Cherokee Indians until the comparatively recent efforts on the part of some of the alleged descendants of Phoebe Goochee to secure recognition in the Indian Territory as Cherokee Indians.

Under these circumstances these applications have been marked for rejection, and will be rejected unless you are able to offer some proof of the most conclusive character that these claimants, or their immediate ancestors were in fact

recognized by the Eastern Cherokee Tribe as a constituent part of the tribe at the date of the Treaty of 1835 or 1846.

III.

That these claimants base their connection of a right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation upon the statement that they are descended from a marriage between Joseph Hubbard and Ann Crews. That this Ann Crews was the daughter of Hardy Crews and his wife, who was known after her marriage as Phoebe Crews, and prior to her marriage as ~~WMASS~~ Goo-Choe, Doo-Choe, Tuck-ee, or Dutch. That this woman was a full-blood Cherokee Indian who was born in the old Cherokee Reservation east of the Mississippi River, and lived in the State of North Carolina, in Person County. She had two daughters, Ann and Mary, who married Joseph Hubbard and David Meredith, respectively. That Phoebe Crews, died in North Carolina prior to the year 1800; that Mary Meredith died in Stokes County, in the same State, in the year 1822, and that Ann Crews, the direct ancestor of these claimants, died in Person County, in that State, in the year 1812.

1V.

That the claimants filed in support of their claim the affidavits of the following witnesses made upon oath and affirmation, a number of them being Quakers, the witnesses testifying as to the Cherokee blood of the ancestors through whom these claimants trace their descent being of great age and making their statements from actual personal knowledge of the parties of whom they testify: The affidavits of Jemima Whitworth, Elijah Kirk., Robert Reagan (2), Jacob Hill, H. H. Hubbard, Charles S. Hubbard, John E. Stubbs (2), William G. Coffin., Charles W. Kirk, J. A. Greer, George Brazzleton., James R. Dawson., Joseph H. Alley, William Bush, R. W. Branner., Jemima Whitworth, Jerry Lane., Squire Blair, Addison Coffin, Milton Starbuck, William G. Coffin., Robert Reagan, David Meredith, Clarkson Thomas, E. E. Kirk, John Anderson, Luna Wright, Addison Coffin, Hezikiah Van Nels, Helen Painter, Mary McCracken, Almecia Harris, F.W. Williams, J.T. Wiles, S.D. Hill., George E. Garland, Ernest Hubbard, Jesse A. Haynes, Joseph W. Hubbard, Sarah J. Hubbard., Robert Reagan (2), Henrietta W. Holton, Robert Reagan and Henrietta W. Holton, jointly, Charles N. Weatherell, Anna I. Stout, Gertrude D. Green, Jemima Whitworth, Alexander Whitworth, W. R. Hubbard, Jeremiah Hubbard, Oliver H. Canada, Sarah Canada, Jemima Whitworth, Alexander Whitworth., Thomas Franklin Moore, S. S. Haynes, W. I. Jones, Alexander Whitworth, Jemima Whitworth, J.A. Bodenhamer, William S. Shoecraft, Nathaniel Lawrence William Bush, R. C. Hobbs, I.P. Stockton, J. O. Reynolds, W.R. Hubbard, Sarah J. Hubbard, Robert Reagan, and William G. Coffin, and the testimony of the following witnesses taken before me, the undersigned special master herein, at the town of Afton, Ind. T., to be used herein; W. H. Butler., Jeremiah Hubbard., William Henry Moore, Woodson B. Hubbard, Caleb W. Hubbard, and L.R. Bell, the last named witness having been examined at an adjourned hearing of this matter at Vinita, Ind. T., and he having been the attorney who was employed by the claimants herein in the year 1885 or 1888 to present their applications to the proper authorities of the Cherokee Nation to be enrolled as citizens of the Nation by blood, together with certain papers attached to the testimony of the several witnesses as exhibits.

That the testimony of these witnesses shows that these claimants are descended, as claimed by them, from Ann Crews, who married Joseph Hubbard, and who was the daughter of Phoebe Crews, who was a full-blood Cherokee Indian, and who lived in the State of North Carolina; that Phoebe Crews died in that State about about the year 1800, in Person County, and that Ann Crews, her daughter, died in Stokes County, of the same State, about the year 1812; that the descendants of Ann Crews lived for a number of years in Guilford County, N.C., removing thence to the States of Indiana and to Tennessee, and that those of the claimants that are now residents of the Cherokee Nation, Ind. Ter., came to the Cherokee Nation about the year 1886, and made an effort to be admitted to citizenship in that Nation; that they employed L. B. Bell, of Vinita, Ind. T., a Cherokee Indian by blood and a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, as an attorney to represent them in their application for citizenship; that he, in 1885, in August, sent H. H. Butler, one of the claimants herein, to William Howell, a Cherokee Indian, living near Afton, Ind. T., for assistance in selecting farms for the various claimants who desired to locate in the Cherokee Nation; that Butler and others of these claimants located farms near Afton, purchasing one improvement from William Howell, and that they have accumulated a large amount of property near that place; that on May 23rd, 1887, there was approved an act passed by the council amending section 7 of the act of council approved December 8, 1886, entitled "An act providing for the appointment of a commission to try and determine applications for citizenship," providing as follows:

Shall be so amended that the commission shall be authorized to try and determine all claims to Cherokee citizenship wherein the claimant claims by virtue of Cherokee descent who left or emigrated from the Cherokee Nation prior to the year 1835.

That after the passage of this act, in the summer of 1887, L. B. Bell, made application to the Cherokee citizenship commission for the admission of these claimants to citizenship in that Nation;

that the claimants testify that they never heard of any action having been taken upon this application until the reply of the Cherokee Nation to their application in this cause was filed before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, though the proof introduced herein by the Cherokee Nation shows that the said applications were rejected by the commission at some time in the year 1839, together with the applications made in the Meredith kindred claim; that a large number of the witnesses whose names are given herein were simply employed for purposes of identifying the claimant and their descendants and of connecting them with some of the older or principal claimants herein, and that the leading witnesses upon the actual relationship of the older claimants to Ann Crews are Addison Coffin, William G. Coffin, Alexander Whitworth, Jemima Whitworth, Jerry Lane, and Squire Blair; that a large portion of the testimony of these leading witnesses is devoted to statements concerning Jeremiah Hubbard, one of the children of Ann Crews and Joseph Hubbard, this Jeremiah Hubbard, being a full brother of Hardy, Jacob, Joseph, Woodson, Annie, Susana, and Rhoda Hubbard, the direct ancestors from whom the claimants in this application trace their descent. It appears that this Jeremiah Hubbard, was a man of considerable note in his locality, being a minister of the Church of Friends, or Quakers, and being widely known throughout the Eastern States; that he was a man of striking appearance, his features, color, ^{and} hair clearly indicating that he was of Indian descent; that he was on intimate terms with John Ross, the Chief of the Cherokee Nation in Georgia, and ^{with} Lewis Ross, by whom he was visited and with whom he visited Washington during the Administration of President Jackson; that he was always recognized as a Cherokee Indian by blood by both whites and Indians; that there is a great deal of testimony bearing upon the family traditions and the opinion which has been held for the last hundred years by the friends and associates of the Hubbard family, all of which tends to sustain their allegations that they are of Cherokee Indian blood and are the lineal descendants of Ann Crews, above mentioned.

VI.

That the Cherokee Nation introduces in support of its answers the record of the rejection by the Cherokee citizenship commission in 1889 of the applications for citizenship of Jeremiah Hubbard, Joseph A. Hubbard, Anna B. Hubbard, Jesse Hubbard, Joseph A. Hubbard, Henry H. Hubbard, Ella Hubbard, George M. Hubbard, Caleb Hubbard, Edgar Hubbard, and Frank Hubbard, these claimants being all rejected by reason of the fact that they did not show that any ancestor through whom they claimed had ever been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation upon any of its authenticated rolls, and for the further reason that they did not prove that they were Cherokees by blood.

The claimants contend that they have shown by a large number of witnesses that they are the lineal descendants of Phoebe Crews and of her daughter Ann Crews, who married Joseph Hubbard, both of these women having been always known to be Cherokee Indians by blood, the claimants having attempted for a number of years to secure a recognition from the proper authorities of the Cherokee Nation of their right to Cherokee citizenship, and having never heard of any decision in their case prior to the institution of this suit, and they all being Cherokee Indians by blood, they are entitled to recognition and enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation under the law applicable to this case, while the Cherokee Nation contends that the claimants not having shown that Ann Crews, the ancestor through whom they claim to derive their right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is now or has been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal of said Nation west to the Indian Territory as at present located and defined, or that her name appears on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation, or that they or any of their ancestors now reside or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation, Ind. T., as citizens thereof; and for the further reason in the case of those claimants above enumerated and their descendants whose application had heretofore been rejected by the Cherokee citizenship commission, that their said case was tried upon its merits, and that upon final hearing judgment was duly given against the applicants and in favor of the Cherokee Nation; that for these reasons these claimants are now barred from being admitted to Cherokee citizenship.

VIII.

The premises considered, I find that the claimants reside in the Cherokee Nation, Ind. Te., and in a number of States in the Union, as shown in Section II of this report; that they are all lineal descendants of Ann Hubbard, the wife of Joseph Hubbard, whose maiden name was Ann Crews, and who was the daughter of Phoebe Crews, a full blood Cherokee Indian woman who lived and died in the State of North Carolina, and who was known prior to her marriage as "Goo-Chee" "Doo-chee" or "Dutch"; that Phoebe Crews died in the State in the year 1800, and that her daughter, Ann Crews, died in Stokes County, in that State, in the year 1812; that both of these women were always recognized to be Cherokee Indians by blood, and that the Cherokee blood of this family has never been disputed.

THAT THESE CLAIMANTS ARE ALL CHEROKEE INDIANS BY BLOOD.

That the principals are principally Quakers, having retained this faith for the last hundred years; that those of them who reside in the Cherokee Nation made an effort to locate themselves in said nation in the year 1885 and purchased land near Afton, Ind. T.; that the majority of the claimants now residing near that place, as shown by this report, made their home there in 1886 and 1887, and that they have accumulated a large amount of property. That a number of these claimants made application to the Cherokee citizenship commission for admission to that nation in the year 1887, and that their applications were rejected by said commission, they having failed to show that their common ancestor from whom they trace their Cherokee blood had been enrolled upon authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation;

that these cases were decided in 1889, but that the claimants state, upon oath and affirmation, that they received no notice of said decision until the transcripts thereof were filed in this cause in support of the answers of the Cherokee Nation; that the brief of the claimants applicable to this case and to the David Meredith case, No. 295, is hereto annexed, for the reason that it states the legal position assumed by the claimants more fully than has been given by me in this report.

Respectfully submitted this the 1 day of Sept. 1897.

N. A. Gibson, Special Master.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

I, N. A. Gibson, special master herein, respectfully show to the Court that, in accordance with the order of reference herein made by the court, I have examined the affidavits of H. H. Hubbard and L. B. Bell, taken in the Hubbard and Meredith cases in the form of depositions upon notice, and have also heard the argument of the attorneys for the claimants, and that I find as follows:

I.

That the parties made application to the Adair citizenship commission in the Cherokee Nation for citizenship in said nation under the act of the Cherokee council approved December the 8, 1886, which act conferred authority upon the said commission to try and determine the applications of all such persons as could show their own names or the names of their ancestors upon any of the Cherokee rolls of the years 1835, 1848, 1851 or 1852. That this act was amended on the 21st day of May 1887, and the commission directed to try and determine all claims to Cherokee citizenship wherein the claimant claims by virtue of Cherokee descent, who left or emigrated from the Cherokee Nation prior to the year 1835. The second section of said amendment authorizes the Chief to procure copies of the rolls of 1851 and 1852, and this amendment seems to have been interpreted as limiting the additional power conferred upon the commission to the examination of such claimants as traced to these two rolls.

That the claimants in these cases did not try to connect with any of the Cherokee rolls, but simply based their application upon the fact that they were Cherokee Indians by blood.

III.

That in this hearing L. B. Bell, was the attorney for the claimants, and states that the commission ruled that it had no jurisdiction of the cases, as the claimants did not connect with any of the rolls specified in the act or the amendment, and that he attempted to withdraw the cases, but was not allowed by the commission to do so. That in the year 1889 the applications were rejected in the absence of the claimants, without notice to them of any further action or intention to proceed further with the cases, and in the Smith case it appears that the claimants did not know of the rejection until the year 1896.

That the decision of the commission of these cases shows that the commission decided that it had no jurisdiction to admit the claimants to Cherokee citizenship, as their names and those of their ancestors did not appear upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, to which the commission was limited in the consideration of applications.

IV.

That in November or December 1889, the claimants in the Hubbard and Meredith cases, after the decision of the commission that it had no jurisdiction of their cases, made application to the Cherokee council, asking for admission to Cherokee citizenship, their applications being introduced by Senator Samuel H. Hayes, and that when the matter was called up, Will. P. Ross, who had been a member of the Adair commission, rose and stated that the matter was res adjudicata, as the cases had been passed upon by the Adair commission, and that upon this motion the applications were either rejected or indefinitely postponed.

Respectfully submitted this Jan 18, 1898.

Report as to application of Jeremiah Hubbard #3297, and other applicants claiming through Phoebe Goochee, or Dutch, wife of Hardy Crews, and her daughters Ann Crews, wife of Joseph Hubbard, and Mary Crews, wife of Hugh Meredith.

More than one hundred applications have been filed based exclusively upon the alleged Cherokee Indian blood of Phoebe Goochee or Dutch, wife of Hardy Crews.

It appears from the applications and from the papers filed in the case, that Phoebe Crews lived in Person County, North Carolina, and died there prior to 1800. The date of her birth cannot be exactly stated, but her daughter Mary was born in 1752. Her daughters Ann and Mary both died in Stokes County, North Carolina, Ann Crews Hubbard dying in 1812, and Mary Crews Meredith, dying in 1823. Their descendants have been considerably scattered, apparently some going to Guilford County, N. C., and afterwards removing to Indiana, and from there to Indian Territory or Oklahoma. Mary Crews Meredith apparently lived a part of the time in Bedford County, Virginia, as her son John was born there in 1779. Person, Stokes and Guilford counties, North Carolina, were never within the recognized domain of the Cherokee nation, and there were no Cherokee lands anywhere near those counties after the year 1777. In 1835 the Cherokee domain did not extend within 200 miles of these counties. There is nothing in the case to indicate that any of these claimants, or their ancestors back to Phoebe Crews, have lived with any tribe of Indians after the marriage of the said Phoebe to her white husband Hardy Crews. One of the descendants of Ann Crews Hubbard, Caroline Newby Painter, (a great-grand-daughter) was born in Indiana as early as 1833 (see application #41017), and one of the descendants of Mary Crews Meredith (a great-grand-daughter), Ann E. Starbuck, was born in Wayne county,

Indiana, in 1829, (see application #42866), According to all the information at hand, and the testimony taken in the case, (see Misc. Test. Pages 2285 and 3175), These claimants have always been recognized as white people and have not lived among the Indians except as they have in recent years lived among the Cherokees in Oklahoma where some members of the family have made strenuous effort to be recognized and enrolled as Cherokee Indians. These efforts have uniformly failed. One of these claimants, Florence A. Mason, herself 22 years of age, files application #41041, and she is the great-great-great-great-great-granddaughter of the Indian ancestor, Phoebe Dutch Crews, and she is still living in Indiana. From some of the statements in the case it does appear that Jeremiah Hubbard, the son of Ann Crews Hubbard, had some dealings with the Cherokee people about the time of the treaty of 1835, and it seems probable that he was used either as an interpreter or as an attorney in presenting the claims of the Cherokees in Washington, but the fact also seems to be that he was picked up by the Cherokee delegation on its way to Washington, as he at that time lived a very long distance from the Cherokee reservation. No one of these claimants was enrolled in 1851, nor does the name of any one of the parents appear on that roll, or on the roll of 1835. The family was well-known and there is no possibility that they could have been enrolled under Indian names. It is perfectly plain from the applications and the papers filed therewith that neither these parties, nor their ancestors, were recognized members of the Eastern Cherokee tribe of Indians in 1835-6 or 1846.

These claims are therefore all rejected.

Appl. 3297

In re Hubbard Case.

Sarah J. Hubbard, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 63 years of age. I claim ~~no~~ no Cherokee Indian blood myself. My husband was a Hubbard. His name was Woodson B. Hubbard. He was a Cherokee Indian-- about one-sixteenth. Woodson was the son of Joseph Hubbard and Joseph was the son of Hardy and Hardy the son of Joseph.

Hardy Hubbard was the son of Annie Crowe, a ~~full-blooded~~ half-breed Cherokee. She was the wife of Joseph Hubbard. Her mother's name was Phoebe Dutch. She was a full blood Cherokee Indian. My husband never drew any Cherokee Indian money. He was living ten years before the war. I have seen his father. He died after the war. I do not think he ever got any Indian money from the government. My husband was born in Indiana and his father in North Carolina, Guilford County. My husband was a voter and went to the white schools. My husband's father was a voter in Indiana. My husband never spoke the Indian language. I never heard my husband's father speak the Indian language. I do not know if he knew it. I do not know when Joseph Hubbard moved from North Carolina to Indiana. My father-in-law told me that he was 12 years old when his grandmother died and that she was an Indian woman. I have heard John Ross speak of my husband's Indian blood. John Ross is the son of Chief Ross. He is dead now. He has been dead about three years. In 1893 he was talking to my husband and he said he had heard ~~in~~ his father speak of the Hubbards being Cherokee Indians. He spoke of his father, John Ross, and Jeremiah Hubbard, a brother of my husband's grandfather, going to Washington City with him in 1835 or 1834 to help in the making of the treaty. I thought it was the treaty of 1855, about the time the Indians were brought from Georgia. ~~It is stated that in fact the~~ John Ross's father, Chief Ross, always spoke of the Hubbards being North Carolina Cherokees so John Ross said. We have lived in the Cherokee Nation about 22 years. He was not a member of the Council. His father never lived with the Cherokees after he lived in North Carolina. He left North Carolina and went to Indiana in 1821. He was not a party to the treaty of 1835. My husband lived in Indiana in 1852.

My father had a half brother and a half sister, Thomas and Maria Catchem; When my grand-father Crosslin died, my grand-mother, Ruth married Charles Catchem and my father, John Crosslin was living with them in 1851. S. B. No. 128.

My brother, Richard Crosslin, application No. 3310 has five children, Calvin, Sam, George; these are children by his first marriage; he has by his second marriage, John Henry Crosslin and Callie; Callie is about two years old; I think John Henry is about four years old; his father told me that John Henry was entitled to an allotment of land but his father had not filed for him; John Henry is certainly four years old.

I had a brother named Joe Crosslin whose wife was named Sallie and who has re-married and is now Sallie Hill, application No. 13298; my brother Joe has five living children; Liza, Bettie, Alfred, Ada, Effie and Bennett Crosslin; Alfred died last August; since the papers were sent in.

In the matter of the claim of said County duly authorized to administer oaths, Russell Stokes, aged 86 years, a resident of Springfield, Greene County, Missouri, to credit, and who being duly sworn declared in relative to aforesaid case as follows:

I was well acquainted with, and knew Alexander Brown during his lifetime, from and after the time he came to Polk County, Missouri, which was about the year of 1835 or 1836, until the death of said Alexander Brown, which occurred about the year of 1837 or 1838. Said Alexander Brown located and settled at what is now known as Brighton, known as the Brock Grave Yard, near Brighton, Polk County, Missouri.

During the time above mentioned, the said Alexander Brown and I lived in the same settlement or neighborhood. We saw each other and were together quite often. We have fished together and have had many conversations together and became intimately acquainted.

The said Alexander Brown told me that he was a Cherokee Indian--my recollection is that he said he was half blood Cherokee Indian and that he came to Missouri from Tennessee. He was recognized and reputed by all who knew him to be a Cherokee Indian. He told me that he had his papers showing his Indian Rights, and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. The said Alexander Brown always claimed to be half Cherokee blood, and all his children claimed to be part Cherokee Indian and were recognized and reputed to be such by all who knew them.

The said Alexander Brown was a very tall broad shouldered man, rather slim with dark hair and eyes and was of dark complexion.

Alexander Brown aforesaid had the following named children, viz:

said County duly authorized to administer oaths, Michael A. Fender, aged 77 years, a resident of Polk County, Missouri, whose Post Office address is Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, well known to be reputable to aforesaid case as follows:

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown in his life time. He was my Grandfather. He came from McMinn County, Tennessee where he lived when I first knew him. He lived about four or five miles from my father's residence in Tennessee. I can remember his being at my father's house a number of times. His family and my Father's family were intimately acquainted and when he left Tennessee and came to Missouri, there were about six or seven families came together, including my Father's family and Alexander Browns'. Said families were all related to each other. We left Tennessee in the fall of 1835, came to a place in Illinois fifteen or eighteen miles east of St. Louis and stopped there over the winter, and in the Spring came on to what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, arriving there May 10, 1836. I was with them during the whole journey to Missouri from Tennessee. I have often heard my Mother, who is a daughter of said Alexander Brown, and my Uncle and Aunt say that said Alexander Brown was a half blood Cherokee Indian. Also, I have heard them say many times that said Alexander Brown was enrolled as a Cherokee Indian on the Roll of 1835. He was a tall man, dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He has always been talked about and known as a half blood Cherokee. He died in 1838. I was at his funeral-the first person I ever saw buried. He was buried at Brock Grave Yard near Brighton, Polk County, Missouri.

Said Alexander Brown had the following named children, viz:
Sarah Brown, generally called Sally, who married Elijah Hamblen, Annis Brown, who married Robert Pace, Bicie Brown, who married Daniel Fender, Violet Brown, who married Eleven Ruth, Susan Brown who married Moses Proctor, Elizabeth Brown, who married Hugh Ruth, Thomas Brown, Isom Brown, Zachariah Brown and John Brown.

I am interested in the prosecution of this case as I am one of the claimants.

*Said Annis (Brown) Pace, was the mother of John A. Pace, who is the father of John A. Pace.
I have no interest in this case and am not interested in the prosecution. Francis E. Pace, is the father of John A. Pace,

On this 26th day of July A. D. 1906, personally appeared before me, Orville E. Gorman, a Notary Public in and for said County, duly authorized to administer oaths, James Harralson, aged 80 years, a resident of Webb City, Jasper County, Missouri, well known to be reputable and entitled to credit, who being by me duly sworn on his oath, declared and saith in relation to said case as follows:

I was well acquainted with Alexander Brown in his life time. He came from McMinn^{or Monroe} County, Tennessee and located and settled near what is now known as Brighton, Polk County, Missouri, on or about the year of 1836 or 1837, he came to said Polk County two or three years before his death. The said Alexander Brown, when I first knew him, lived in Tennessee. I have heard that he came from Georgia to Tennessee. He lived about a mile from where my father lived in Tennessee. I knew said Alexander Brown from the time I was old enough to remember any one until his death. He visited my father and my father visited him often. His family and my father's family visited back and forth quite often. His children and my father's children played together often and the two families were intimately acquainted with each other. I have a very clear and distinct recollection of hearing the said Alexander Brown say that he was registered or that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians prior to his leaving Tennessee, and I have heard him tell this both before he left Tennessee and after he came to Missouri. I came to Missouri soon after Alexander Brown left Tennessee, and I saw him and was intimately acquainted with him both in Missouri and in Tennessee. The said Alexander Brown was a tall broad shouldered man, rather slim, high cheek bones, dark complexion with black hair and eyes. He said his children were generally known and recognized and reputed to be part Cherokee Indian. They had the appearance of being part Indian. I have heard Alexander Brown and also his children say that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and they always claimed to be of Cherokee blood.

Said Alexander Brown's remains were buried at the Brock Grave Yard near Brighton in Polk County, Missouri. It was the general talk among the children and neighbors of said Alexander Brown that he was a half blood Cherokee Indian and that his name was on the roll of Cherokee Indians. I recollect that he was called by the Indian nick name of "Swanee". When he left Tennessee and came west he was accompanied by a number of families.

Said Alexander Brown was the father of the following named children: Thomas Brown, Isom Brown, John Brown, Jach. Brown, Sarah (Brown) Hamblen, who was also called "Sally", Dicie (Brown) Fender, Elizabeth (Brown) Ruth, Susan (Brown) Proctor, Annis (Brown) Pace and Violet (Brown) Ruth. G. G. Walker, Siloam Springs, Ark.

Sir:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, why were neither you nor your parents ever enrolled with the Eastern Cherokees? Were your parents or grandparents slaves? If so, were they slaves of Indians or white people. To what tribe of Indians do you claim to be connected?

Can you furnish us with evidence tending to establish the fact that you are a descendant of persons who were recognized as the Eastern Cherokee tribe of Indians at the d. 1867? If so, please state and send us the names and correct addresses of any witnesses who will testify to that effect.

Very respectfully,

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of June 23, 1907, you are advised that the application of William F. Blair has been received and filed as No. 22557.

We are unable to state, at this time, whether or not you are entitled to participate in this fund, as the applications have not been taken up for final consideration, as the Court of Claims has extended the time for filing applications to August 31, 1907, and until all applications have been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 26,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is anything further required in connection with your application you will be duly notified.

Very respectfully,

NLC.
